

Assault and Battery, and Count IV – Punitive Damages), stemming from the abuse Plaintiff suffered. On February 18, 2020, all three Defendants filed separate Answers. (ECF Nos. 6-8)

BSA filed its Notice of Removal¹ removing the instant action to this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1334 and 1452(a) and Rule 9027 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, arguing that this action is related to the Bankruptcy Case, and that Plaintiff's Petition arises in or arises under the Bankruptcy Case. (ECF No. 1) "The Action is one of more than 290 similar civil actions currently pending in state and federal courts across the country that assert personal injury tort claims against BSA and various non-debtor co-defendants arising from the alleged abuse of a former youth or adult member of the BSA either by an adult scouting leader, an adult volunteer, or by another youth member (such cases and claims together, the 'Pending Abuse Actions')." (ECF No. 1 at 2, ¶ 2)

On that same date, BSA filed for Chapter 11 bankruptcy in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware ("Bankruptcy Case"). See In re Boy Scouts of America, Lead Case No. 20-10343 (Bankr. D. Del. Feb. 18, 2020). As a result, certain personal injury actions against BSA, including the instant case, were stayed under the automatic stay provision of 11 U.S.C. § 362(a). Additional consent orders continued to stay this instant action through May 18, 2020, through September 28, 2021. (ECF Nos. 16, 18, 27, 29, and 31)

In the Joint Status Update, BSA provides a status report on the pending bankruptcy proceeding, reporting that this action has been and continues to be stayed as against BSA and GSLAC until the Bankruptcy Court enters orders following the OMNIBUS Hearing currently set for February 22, 2022, to determine in part if the BSA plan of reorganization will be approved. (ECF No. 36) Accordingly,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the instant action is stayed until the Bankruptcy Court issues its decision confirming or denying the plan of reorganization and/or enters Seventh Extension to Stay the Order.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED all proceedings against BSA and GSLAC are hereby stayed pending the resolution of the bankruptcy proceedings filed by BSA or further order from this Court. The parties shall file a joint status report on May 16, 2022, and every ninety days thereafter regarding the status of the bankruptcy proceedings in In re Boy Scouts of America, Lead Case No. 20-10343 (Bankr. D. Del. Feb. 18, 2020).
